Apprenticeship indentures

Reference	Description	Dates
DRO/004/D/07/001	Apprenticeship bonds and indentures A sample image is available online via the Player and shows the indenture for Alexander Ward, a poor child of Enfield. Parishes took care of poor children in their area, often finding nurses for them and providing apprenticeships so they could learn a trade. The churchwardens and overseers of the poor for Saint Andrew Enfield placed Alexander Ward, a poor child of the parish, as apprentice to Daniel Lanne for 7 years from 5 March 1690. To see more indentures please consult the bundle at London Metropolitan Archives. 1 bundle Former Reference: Box 21	1606-1694
