Early Letters
H72/SM/A/06/04/001	Early letters This is an artificial collection of letters relating to the foundation of the School and the early Deans. Later entries, sent to Isabel Thorne in her capacity as Secretary, relate to issues such as the opening of qualifications to women. There are also two letters preserved with the book relating to Elizabeth Garrett Anderson's early struggle to gain a medical qualification. The provenance of these is unclear. Also a letter from Florence Nightingale, dated 14 November 1874, written to R. Brudenell Carter on the occasion of the death of the first Dean of the School, Dr. Anstie. 1 volume Former Reference: SM/1/7/4/1	1874-1882
